

VIII—Right the Wrong. Cross out one wrong word in each sentence below and replace it with the correct word according to Lesson 11. One example is provided.

Noah

1. Elam was named after the grandson of ~~Abraham~~.
2. Ali, the closest relative of Mohammed, was the rightful successor to Mohammed, according to the Sunnis.
3. Abu Bekr, Mohammed's friend and father-in-law, was the rightful successor to Mohammed, according to the Shiites.
4. Ali was in fact the second caliph after Mohammed.
5. Ismail was raised by Sunni tutors.
6. At 13, Ismail made himself the "shah," which means Persian.
7. Ismail led Persia into a true democracy.
8. Ismail's Qizilbash army wore orange hats and no armor.
9. Ismail made Baghdad the capital of Persia.
10. Ismail's descendant, Abbas the Great, moved the capital of Persia to Belize to be farther away from his enemies.

IX—Bonus. Earn extra points for each complete sentence you can write that includes any combination of the words below. (You may earn one point per sentence with a limit of five sentences.)

Martin Luther	indulgences	purgatory	jingle
Johann Tetzel	debate	bull	Junker George
heretic	recant	Protestants	hymns